Title

Recognition of Georgia Association of Elementary School Principals' School Bell and Education Patron Award Winners

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of Georgia Association of Elementary School Principals' School Bell and Education Patron Award Winners

Summary Explanation and Background

Two Cherokee County School District schools have earned top state honors for excellence in education, and a third received recognition for an outstanding school business partner.

Indian Knoll Elementary School and Macedonia Elementary School both have won the prestigious School Bell Award from the Georgia Association of Elementary School Principals, and Clark Creek Elementary School STEM Academy earned the Education Patron Award.

The Association presents the School Bell Award to no more than 10 schools in Georgia each year in recognition of outstanding curriculum and organizational leadership initiatives.

Indian Knoll ES, led by Principal Kim Cerasoli, earned the award for its Language Club program. Macedonia ES was recognized for its Social Squad program initiated by former Principal Dr. Carolyn Daugherty, who now leads Bascomb ES.

The Education Patron Award recognizes an outstanding educational supporter, and Clark Creek's honored partner is EF2 Education First Fund Realty Team: Dr. Keith Ingram and Bruce Swanson.

The three schools will be formally recognized and presented with their awards at the Association's Fall Principals' Conference.
