Title

Recognition of River Ridge High School and Woodstock High School -- Winners of the National PTA School of Excellence Award

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of River Ridge High School and Woodstock High School -- Winners of the National PTA School of Excellence Award

Summary Explanation and Background

Two Cherokee County School District schools have been honored by the National PTA for excellence!

River Ridge High School and Woodstock High School are winners of the National PTA School of Excellence award, a two-year title that recognizes outstanding partnerships between local PTAs and schools "to build an inclusive and welcoming school-community where all families contribute to enriching the educational experience and overall well-being for all students." To be considered for this honor, a school and its PTA unit must commit to working together to set and meet goals for improving family engagement.

The PTSA at River Ridge High School last school year was led by President Brenda Page, while Tawnya Velzy served as president for the Woodstock High School PTSA. The schools are led by River Ridge High School Principal Todd Miller and Woodstock High School Principal Mark Smith.

The schools will receive a banner to display celebrating this National recognition.
