Requested Action

School Board Recognition of Creekview High School Junior Cesar Garcia for Being Named 2021 Georgia Career and Technical Instruction Competition Fair Contest Third-Place Winner

Summary Explanation and Background

Creekview High School junior, Cesar Garcia was named third-place winner in the 2021 Georgia Career and Technical Instruction (CTI) Competition Fair contest! Cesar, who is interested in becoming an electrician after he graduates from high school, has been involved with the Creekview HS CTI program for the past three years.

Cesar demonstrated incredible artistic abilities when he submitted his T-Shirt design in the CTI Competition at the Georgia State Fair earlier this year. Cesar will be recognized on stage at the Georgia CTI Fall Leadership Conference this Fall.

According to Cesar's teachers and administrators, he has matured into a capable young leader and has a very good work ethic. They are very proud of him and his current achievements and future endeavors.
