Title

Recognition of Cherokee HS Senior Sarah Liebert as Recipient of the Award of Excellence Presented by the Georgia Department of Education

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of Cherokee HS Senior Sarah Liebert as Recipient of the Award of Excellence Presented by the Georgia Department of Education

Summary Explanation and Background

Cherokee High School Class of 2022 graduating senior Sarah Liebert earned the award presented by the Georgia Department of Education to recognize graduating seniors who overcome special needs to achieve academic and/or extracurricular accomplishments.

Sarah, who is legally blind, is ranked in the top 16% of her class and is an honors and Advanced Placement (AP) student. A talented musician, Sarah is a member of the school chorus and marching band's color guard. She was selected as a vocal finalist for the Georgia Governor's Honors program her junior year.

She plans to study music education at Berry College and already has earned more than $29,000 in scholarships.
