

MLA Handbook (9th ed): QUICK GUIDE

In-Text Citations:

Document any sources used in your writing, whether quoted or paraphrased, through both an in-text citation as well as a corresponding citation in the Works Cited page. The in-text citation is simply a brief reference to where the information was obtained and guides to the correct entry in your Works Cited page. Most often it includes the author's last name and the page number from where the information was taken.

1 author: (Vickers 15) 2 authors: (Bates and Swan 22) 3 authors: (Thomas et al. 33)
corporate author: (World Sports League) no author w/ page: ("Tweet Child O'Mine" 23)
no author or pages: ("Animal Testing") author no page (Maugoni)

CORE ELEMENTS

1	Author.
2	Title of source.
3	Title of container,
4	Contributor,
5	Version,
6	Number,
7	Publisher,
8	Publication Date,
9	Location

For each source that you select for your research, think about the following questions: Who is the author? What is the title? How was the source published? Where did you find the source? When was the source published?

Each source in the Works Cited is described using a series of facts. Complete the citation using as much information as is available. Write as the following below:
