School Board Approves New Chief Technology Officer for the MSD of Lawrence Township

INDIANAPOLIS – This evening, the School Board of the Metropolitan School District of Lawrence Township approved the appointment of Dr. Steven Goeglein to the position of Chief Technology Officer. Dr. Goeglein will transition immediately to this new role from that of Assistant Director of Systems Integration, a role he has held since 2019. Dr. Goeglein has served the MSD of Lawrence Township in various leadership capacities since 1995 as Dean, Assistant Athletic Director, Assistant Principal, Principal, Director, and Assistant Superintendent.

According to Superintendent, Dr. Shawn A. Smith, “With thirty five years of experience in education, Dr. Goeglein has a keen understanding of the importance of servant leadership. He is an ideal person to lead this fast growing and ever-evolving division.”

Goeglein shares, “I am honored to be given this opportunity to lead the Technology Division and will do my best to ensure the division is able to meet the needs of our students and staff both now and in the future.

An Indiana native, Goeglein holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Secondary Education from Butler University (1988). He continued his education at Butler, earning his M.S. in School Administration in 1995. He holds his Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Ball State University (2011).
