

Bylaws – Strongsville Instrumental Music Boosters

Revised August, 2022

ARTICLE I – NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1.01. Name – The name for this 501(c)(3) certified, not-for-profit organization is STRONGSVILLE SCHOOLS INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC BOOSTERS, herein referred to as SIMB.

Section 1.02. Purpose – The purposes of this organization are:

- A. Provide volunteer support to the band and orchestra programs and directors within the Strongsville City Public Schools.
- B. Provide supplementary financial support to the band and orchestra programs within the Strongsville City Public Schools outside of the district budget.
- C. Promote and foster interest in the band and orchestra programs within the Strongsville City Public schools.
- D. Sustain the fundraising efforts of SIMB.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Section 2.01 Membership.

- A. Membership shall be open to all those who wish to support SIMB and the band and orchestra programs in Strongsville City Public Schools.
- B. Each membership is entitled to one (1) vote per issue at General Membership meetings.
- C. Eligibility for elected offices and appointed positions shall be limited to members who are parents, guardians, or legal custodians of current members of bands, orchestras, and recognized auxiliary units.
- D. The Board may agree to allow multiple levels of membership. Details of each membership level shall be determined by the Board. Memberships may be upgraded at any time but may not be downgraded.
- E. Members must subscribe to the purpose and bylaws of SIMB and not otherwise be excluded from membership.
- F. Any member may cancel their membership by notifying the chair of the Membership Committee in writing. No refunds will be provided.

Section 2.03. Director Membership – All current band and orchestra directors shall be considered members and are not required to pay annual dues.

Section 2.04. Compensation – No member of SIMB, including Board members, shall be paid a salary by SIMB.

Section 2.05. Membership Revocation.

- A. Any member or non-member volunteer may be fully removed from the organization for conduct detrimental to the interests of SIMB, lack of sympathy of its objectives, or for refusal to render reasonable assistance in carrying out its purpose.
- B. Upon receipt of information or a complaint that an active member has engaged in conduct described above, it shall be submitted to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will meet at the call of the President to determine if the matter warrants further action. If the complaint concerns the conduct of a member of the Executive Committee, said Executive Committee member shall be excluded from participation in the initial meeting and quorum requirements for the Executive Committee will be reduced by one (1) for the purposes of this action. If the complaint concerns the President, the Vice President may call the Executive Committee to action under this section.

- C. In the event the Executive Committee determines no further action is required, the matter is closed.
- D. If further action is required, a notice will be sent to the member, via certified mail, notifying them of the complaint and the opportunity to appear before the Executive Committee to provide such information as they wish to provide.
- E. The Executive Committee will determine, by majority vote of those present, whether to remove the member.
- F. The decision of the Executive Committee is final and may not be challenged in any other forum. The member will be notified in writing, via certified mail, of the decision.
- G. Members removed through this process are not eligible for future membership or volunteer opportunities.
- H. All proceedings undertaken pursuant to this section shall be confidential.
- I. No refunds of membership fees will be made upon removal of the member under this section.

ARTICLE III – BOOSTER BOARD

Section 3.01. The Board of Directors of SIMB, herein referred to as the Board, shall consist of the Executive Committee and the chairpersons of the Working and Fundraising Committees as defined in Article VIII, sections 8.07 and 8.08.

Section 3.02. Each member of the Board is entitled to one (1) vote per issue at SIMB Board meetings.

Section 3.03. The Board is the governing body of the organization. The Board shall determine administrative policies, maintain records, and manage the affairs of the organization.

Section 3.04. The Board shall approve all activities and all expenditures involving SIMB funds per SIMB bylaws, policies and procedures.

ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 4.01. The Executive Committee of SIMB shall consist of the elected officers, the head high school Orchestra Director, and head high school Band Director.

Section 4.02. The Executive Committee is responsible for the oversight of the committee chairpersons and has the power to remove committee chairpersons as necessary to ensure that the committees are functioning in the best interests of SIMB.

Section 4.03. The Executive Committee may commission ad-hoc committees as necessary.

Section 4.04. The Executive Committee shall act on behalf of the Booster Board when action must be taken on issues requiring expedient decisions. Decisions of the Executive Committee shall be reviewed at the next regular meeting of the Booster Board.

- A. On all issues, a majority vote is required to pass.

ARTICLE V – OFFICERS AND CHAIRPERSONS

Section 5.01. The elected officers of this organization shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

Section 5.02. The Chairpersons are appointed by the Executive Committee and shall be all those required to support the primary committees.

Section 5.03. Each officer and chairperson is responsible for the proper performance of their specific duties. They shall operate in their area of responsibility within their assigned budget, and shall keep accurate written records of their activities during the year in an up-to-date procedures manual, so that the valuable information they have gained can be passed on to their successor.

Section 5.04. The Executive Committee reserves the right to temporarily waive eligibility requirements of an elected office in the event of an extenuating circumstance (i.e. the individual's child un-enrolls from the instrumental music program mid year while there are only a few months remaining in the elected term). The Executive Committee may only waive eligibility requirements with a unanimous vote. Eligibility waivers will be limited to the remainder of the current school year.

Section 5.05. The executive committee may allow, through unanimous vote, a newly elected officer to commence their new term immediately following the April election, instead of the usual start date of July 1, if deemed appropriate in the event of extenuating circumstances. The said officer will still complete a full two-year term, to expire on June 30, two years after their election.

ARTICLE VI – RESPONSIBILITIES OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS
