

March 5th Grade Newsletter

THIS MONTH IN 5TH GRADE

In Reading, fifth graders are continuing to identify the main idea of a text, explain relationships between people or events in a text, and performing all steps of the writing process. In Math, students are working on Unit 4: Multiplying and Dividing Multi-Digit Numbers. Students should continue to practice on MyPath and DreamBox to enhance skills. In Social Studies, students are comparing forms of resistance used by Harriett Tubman, Frederick Douglas, and the abolitionist movement.
