Superintendent's Reading Challenge

Dr. Balgobin is proud to present her reading challenge! From February 20, 2023 through March 19, 2023. Students are invited to track their reading. By encouraging students to read, they will develop a lifelong reading habits that are essential for college and career readiness.

Students in sixth through eighth grade will be able to log into Beanstack from VPortal to log the minutes they have read.

Badges will appear as students complete the challenge. Additional reading badges will include reading 20 and 25 books. We are also including visiting the media center and the Volusia County Public Library challenge. When students visit their media center, they will locate a key word to add to their Beanstack account. The Volusia County Public Libraries will also display one secret word for duration of the month-long challenge.

Challenge Guidelines:

- Grades 6-8: 300 minutes

Prizes include:

- Brag tags for completing the challenge.
- The top ten readers will win a gift card.
