REPORTS

14. PERSONNEL COMMISSIONER REPORTS

Commissioner Jaramillo reported that her district office, similar to SBCEO, is storing large quantities of personal protective equipment for distribution; she is fully vaccinated as of today. Commissioner Ostini had no PC-related items to report. Commissioner Pickavet reported that he will be fully vaccinated in a week.

15. DIRECTOR, HUMAN RESOURCES REPORT

The Director reported that SBCEO's surveillance testing cadence has changed from all employees being tested every other month to every two weeks. The testing method has also changed to an observed, self-administered nasal swab test. She recognized the SBCEO employees, including members of the HR staff, who have been staffing these outdoor testing events (in often challenging weather conditions) and noted that HR had hired a short-term worker to support the testing process. She shared a message sent by an SBCEO employee expressing gratitude for the regular COVID testing, plentiful PPE, and availability of vaccines for our staff.

The Director reported that coordination of vaccination events has transitioned to our local health systems and our county's Public Health Department, and that SBCEO continues to support vaccination efforts by communicating with our staff and posting information on our website.

The Director reported that in future years, she will be exploring establishing a timeline and process for Classified School Employees of the Year that's independent of CDE's timeline and done in greater coordination with the Crystal Apple Award process overseen by Steve Keithley and his team, which includes recognition for a classified employee.

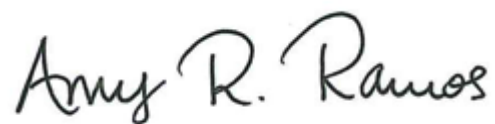

16. CALIFORNIA SCHOOL EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION REPORT

No report from CSEA.

Communications
Santa Barbara

Salary: $26.83 - $37.62 per hour

Apply by: 5-6-2021

Apply online: www.sbceo.org

Phone: 805-964-4711 x5225

Ideal candidate: You are an effective communicator, with advanced writing and verbal communications skills in English and Spanish, and a willingness to learn new communications tools and strategies. You are highly organized and detail-oriented with demonstrated ability to work independently and exercise appropriate judgment. You are committed to providing the best service available to the Santa Barbara County Education Office, school districts, students, and the community.

The position: Under general supervision, this position coordinates and implements internal and external communication strategies for SBCEO and SBCEO provides support to the Director on administrative matters requiring knowledge of department policies and procedures, SBCEO rules and regulations, federal guidelines, and related codes and laws.

Specific duties and responsibilities: Execute social media strategies, create and maintain web content, market events, update databases and media lists, track projects and media exposure, and select or create digital media. Draft, edit, proof, and distribute digital and print communications copy (e.g. press releases, radio commentaries, publications, social media posts, flyers, Superintendent's columns) to represent SBCEO in the community. Research and summarize a variety of topics in order to make recommendations for management about media strategies, suggest topics for editorials, prepare for media interviews, and accomplish other communications goals. Gather, synthesize, and report data, including website and social media analytics, to evaluate the effectiveness of various communication strategies and recommend adjustments as needed. Coordinate and produce special events, including planning, logistics, marketing, and communications. Edit employee newsletter, including content creation and layout. Attend, photograph, and report on events and activities, as assigned. Advise and support departments to ensure that SBCEO's communications standards, policies, and procedures are followed. Independently or with the Director, represent SBCEO at events; provide staff support at meetings and events by taking notes, registering guests, and other activities. Represent SBCEO to the media as authorized by the Director of Communications or the Superintendent. Serve as backup webmaster. Provide emergency communications support during natural disasters and other urgent situations affecting SBCEO or the community. Coordinate update of annual directory including data collection, publication distribution, and billing; provide updated information to key staff throughout the year; maintain lists of principals, superintendents, and school board members for website and directory purposes. Provide administrative support to Communications Department including creating requisitions, purchases, and budget reports and monitoring expenditures using SBCEO's enterprise financial system. Perform related duties as assigned.

REQUIREMENTS

Knowledge: Correct usage, grammar, spelling, punctuation, and vocabulary in English and Spanish. Effective social media practices and strategies, including Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, and other platforms. Software applications used in the department. Public relations practices, procedures, and terminology.

Abilities: Speak, read, and write Spanish and English with a level of proficiency to perform required job duties. Draft a variety of written materials independently and from general oral instructions. Handle multiple tasks, work under pressure, and adapt to priorities and deadlines that are subject to frequent change. Plan, organize, coordinate, and prioritize work. Learn to use an enterprise financial system. Learn principles of budget administration. Complete work despite frequent interruptions. Meet schedules and timelines. Work independently with little direction. Research topics and succinctly summarize findings. Quickly learn and navigate new technologies. Organize and edit rough draft copy. Take photos using a variety of devices, including camera, phone, and tablet. Use mobile devices to update digital content. Interact positively with peers, supervisors, the public, and other agencies. Demonstrate diplomacy, tact, patience, courtesy, and professionalism. Operate a variety of office machines and software efficiently. Experience using a website content management system (CMS) and skills in photography and videography are desirable.

Education and experience: Possession of an associate's degree in communications, journalism, public relations, marketing, or related field is required. Possession of a bachelor's degree in a related field is preferred and three years of experience in communications, public relations, marketing, or social media management, preferably in the public, education, or nonprofit sectors.

Licenses and certificates: Valid California driver's license; automobile insurance required by law; and the use of a dependable automobile.

Working conditions: This position is considered generally sedentary. Most work is performed while sitting at a desk and usually involves extensive use of computers, telephones, and other office equipment. Strenuous physical activity — such as lifting and carrying heavy objects, crawling, or stooping — is not generally associated with this position. This position is not typically exposed to significant safety hazards. Work is performed in a typical modern office environment. Local travel to a variety of locations is required. Occasional attendance at evening and weekend meetings and events is also required.

RECRUITMENT INFORMATION

Examination: The recruitment will be Dual Certification, resulting in internal and external candidates being ranked together as a group according to final combined scores. The qualifying examination may consist of a written, oral, or performance examination, or any combination thereof. Candidates who demonstrate the strongest background relative to the responsibilities of the position will be invited to participate in the examination process. Candidates must pass all parts of the examination/s to be placed on the eligibility list and will be ranked according to a scoring system determined by the Director, Human Resources. If you require an accommodation during any of these selection procedures, please notify Human Resources by the deadline date specified in this announcement.

Examination dates: The written examination for this classification is tentatively scheduled for 05-12-2021. The oral examination for this classification is tentatively scheduled for 05-19-2021. If your application meets the screening criteria, you will receive additional information regarding the examination process including an official invitation to participate.

Eligibility list: This position is open to applicants including current employees and those from the general public. All applicants must meet minimum qualifications to be invited to the respective examination/s. Dual certification results in one integrated eligibility list based on rank.
