

Loose Article Policy

When planning your day at Six Flags, we suggest that you travel light.

If you plan an active day of riding rides, we suggest that you bring into the park only items that can be safely secured in cargo pockets, a waist pack or a zipping jacket pocket. To secure loose articles, a cargo pocket must fasten with a velcro or button flap or a zipper, a waist pack should fasten around the waist and have a zipper closure, and a jacket pocket must have a zipper closure.

For safety reasons, purses, backpacks, beverage containers or any other loose articles may not be taken on the following rides: Blackbeard's Lost Treasure Train, Buccaneer, Fantasy Fling, Fly Me to the Moon, Great American Scream Machine, Jolly Roger, Parachutes, Rolling Thunder, Runaway Mine Train, Skull Mountain, Tango, and the Twister.

These items may be left in a locker, your vehicle, with a non-rider, or at the owner's risk on the ride platform. However, Six Flags is not responsible for items lost, damaged or stolen.

Kingda Ka, El Toro, Medusa, Superman, Batman The Ride, The Dark Knight and Nitro: Loose articles of any kind including purses, backpacks, beverage containers, etc may not be taken past the entrance, or in line and may not be left on the ride platform. Cell phones, pagers, or other small items must be secured in cargo pockets or waist packs. All loose items not able to be stored in cargo pockets or waist packs must be left in a locker or with a non-rider prior to entering the line.

Loose items may be secured by the rider inside the ride unit on all rides not listed above.

For safety reasons, taking pictures, videotaping and filming on rides are prohibited. Picture taking is permitted on the Big Wheel, Carousel, and the Sky Ride.

Loose articles are defined as cell phones, pagers, hats/headware, cameras, stuffed animals, umbrellas, beverage containers, personal entertainment devices, purses, backpacks, etc.

All-day locker rental is available near the main gate (right side) and at Jersey Shore Candy inside the theme park.

Other lockers are also located near Kingda Ka, El Toro, Medusa, Superman, Batman The Ride, The Dark Knight and Nitro. The Rental fee for these lockers is $1.00 (coin) and is paid each time the locker is opened. (Change machines are located near the lockers.)

Six Flags assumes no liability for items left in lockers, bins or on ride platforms.
