

Agenda

Wednesday, March 8, 2023 7:32 AM

Attendance: Kathy Ashton (Principal), Liz Cannon (Asst. Principal), Jenn Nielsen, Lindsay Blackburn, Andrea Davis, Adrienne Crocket, Holli Youngberg, Kara Kol, Kimberlee Nelson, Krista Turner, Loralee White, Rich Eggett, Andrew Hahn, Jennifer Gottfredson, Janet Eggers.

Trustland money was discussed and a budget was presented to the community council.

Ms. Ashton explained that TL must be approved or declined by CC, but TSSA they just need to look over.

- It was reiterated that we will be losing CARES and ESSER money for next year so some of those costs have been adjusted to be paid for our of TL and TSSA.
- The question of if Study hall is a productive and effective class for all students.
 - It is effective for most students but it is also an optional class and students can opt out if they wish.
- According to Academic coach data, the number of students with F's has decreased from 222 to 142 since midterm. This is data from the 75 students that are on the coaches caseload.
- Some feedback from career day was shared.
 - Jodi and Kim will address the feedback and fine tune for next year.
- The SEL change was addressed. For the 23-24 school year we will make a switch to the Character Ed curriculum for SEL/Eagle time.
- The council was given the chance to vote Yes or No to approve the Trustlands budget for 23/24 and that will be maintained by Ms. Ashton.

