Principal's Report

Students return to in-school learning on Jan. 19th (hybrid schedule). White (last names L-Z) return on Tuesday and Thursday. Green (last names A-K) Wednesday and Friday. All students return on Monday Jan. 25th on an "A" day.

Guidelines concerning contact tracing within the school setting have changed. CDC, Ohio Governor's office, and MCHD says that a student that has been near (within 3ft. and with masks properly worn) another student that has tested positive with COVID-19 - does not need to quarantine.

Mrs. Knapp is gathering ideas/suggestions from seniors concerning Senior Week activities and Graduation.

Old Business / New Business

After Prom fundraising letter to be sent with high school mailing in February, possibly with a Guidance Office mailing.

Mrs. Knapp, staff, and students are considering different ways, within state guidelines, that they can perform plays, choir concerts, and band/orchestra concerts for an audience.

Committee Reports/Updates

Fundraising – Honeybaked Ham fundraiser runs through January 8th. We get 20% of purchases, goal is $750. Current funds raised: $279.

Hospitality –None

Sunshine Chair – Mr. Kessner's brother passed from COVID-19.
Mr. Ranallo and his wife are expecting a baby within the next few weeks.

After prom – April 23, 2021, Medina Rec Center (tentatively). Barb volunteered to inquire if the Rec has any updates/news concerning their ability to host. Julie contacted the Foundary (a possible secondary location) and was told that due to COVID-19 state mandates, they would likely not be able to host.

Adjournment

Meeting at 9:43 am.
