Principal's Report

State testing is not waived. April 13 is SAT for juniors and English 10 state test. No school for rest of the students. Last week of April will be remaining state testing. Letter will go out in with schedule.

AP testing is a two-week period beginning May 3.

No PSAT will be given for sophomores. Data from the 9th grade test can be used for scheduling purposes. 10th graders can attend the SAT boot camp at the school to help prepare for junior year testing.

2021/22 schedule is not out yet. Goes to the board Feb. 22.

Mrs. Miller is leading prom planning (along with Mrs. Knapp). Plan A is to hold prom at Weymouth, currently restricted to 300 students. She is reaching out to students to generate ideas for Plans B and C. Plans must be approved by Medina county health director.

EJ Thomas Hall is also restricting number of people. They do not know right now how things will look for graduation.

Old Business / New Business

After Prom fundraising letter for junior class to be sent with a high school mailing in March.

Committee Reports/Updates

Fundraising – Honeybaked Ham fundraiser brought in $279. Carrie will set it up to run again for spring.

Hospitality – None

Sunshine Chair – Mr. Ranallo's (athletic director) wife had a baby boy; Mrs. Yutzy (teacher) had a baby girl. Mrs. Riha (aide) had a baby boy. Mrs. Snanigan (front desk) lost her mother (not due to Covid).

After prom – April 23, 2021. Medina Rec Center said, at this point, they do not know if we will be able to have after prom there. Julie contacted the Foundary (a possible secondary location) and was told to take them off the option list. Carrie did research on multiple options: at the high school indoors and/or stadium; Conrad Botsum farmstead on Riverview; Blue Heron Brewery, and Mapleside. Restrictions and costs vary per venue. Lynne volunteered to contact Strongsville Rec, which has been used in the past. Mrs. Knapp would like to gather students' opinions on options discussed before moving forward.

Letter to community to request support is on hold until we can send out more specifics based on selected options. Consider sending letter digitally with a digital link to donate as well.
