Please provide a brief explanation of why the 2017-18 and 2018-19 school year participation rates were below 95%. (250 words or less)	Many parents in Glen Cove community have been supporters of the opt-out movement. The head of the Long Island chapter is a Glen Cove resident, and current PTA president at our school, and is very vocal and her attempts to garner support. The Glen Cove teachers' association has also been supportive of the opt out movement, paying for a billboard truck encouraging parents to opt out to drive around the district and park itself in front of the middle school in recent years. In the past the Glen Cove teachers' Association has also set up tables at events encouraging parents to opt-out.

Describe the chosen strategies and key activities to be implemented to improve Participation Rate.	We will continue to hold parent meetings throughout the upcoming year (first meeting held on 3/9/20), in both English and in Spanish, encouraging parents to have their children sit for the exam. At these meetings we will discuss the utility of the exams and what can be gained both from instructional standpoint as well as future Federal monies. We will continue to disseminate literature in the form of flyers and FAQs, in both English and in Spanish, so that we provide parents with as much information as possible regarding the usefulness of the exams, the administration of the exams, and what teachers can do with the data that results.

Please Note: Title I funds must be used to supplement, not supplant, state and local funds
