

How to Apply for Federal Student Financial Aid

Financial aid comes primarily from the federal and state governments and your college.

Federal aid includes Pell Grants, Work-Study, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, and federal student loans.

Before You Apply

Get Your FSA ID

- Both you and a parent need Federal Student Aid Identification Numbers (FSA IDs) to complete and electronically sign your FAFSA and other federal student aid documents.
- Get it before you sit down to do the FAFSA.
- Visit studentaid.gov and click "Create Account."

Gather these Materials

- Student's driver's license
- Student's Social Security number
- For both student and parents:
 - Income tax returns from two years ago
 - Records of other untaxed income, such as child support received, IRA/pension deductions, veteran's benefits, or military allowances
- Email address

Complete the FAFSA — Available Oct. 1

Go to hesc.ny.gov

- Visit "Pay/Apply for Aid – Start Here" at hesc.ny.gov for step-by-step assistance in completing the FAFSA.
- Follow the link to the FAFSA application and complete online.

- Use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool through the online FAFSA to connect directly to the Internal Revenue Service for your tax data. Easy and efficient!
- If you completed a FAFSA in the previous year, you will receive a notice to go to your renewal FAFSA.

Important Reminders

- Find out the financial aid deadlines at your college, and be sure to meet them.
- Apply for financial aid every year. Financial aid programs change and your situation may change. Any change may affect your eligibility.
- Don't pay for financial aid information that you can get for free — see your counselor or college advisor, or visit hesc.ny.gov/myths.
- Attend financial aid workshops to learn more about financial aid programs and completing applications. Check with your high school counselor and visit StartHereGetThere.org in the fall for dates and locations.

Apply for the New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)

- If you are a New York State resident and include a New York school on your FAFSA, you should also apply for New York State aid online by using the New York State resident link on the FAFSA Submission Confirmation page.
- Complete and review the application information, change any incorrect items, complete any missing items, then submit the form.
- If you are a New York State resident and have listed a New York school on the FAFSA, but did NOT complete a TAP application online, you will automatically receive a notice from HESC reminding you to do so.
- If you have received a renewal FAFSA and have not completed the TAP application, you will receive notification from HESC directing you on the next step of the application process.
- You must apply for TAP and complete or renew the FAFSA every year.
- You can check the status of your TAP grant at hesc.ny.gov.

Check hesc.ny.gov for the latest information about completing your FAFSA and TAP applications.

What's Next?

- Shortly after filing your FAFSA, you will receive an email notice that your FAFSA has been processed and your Student Aid Report (SAR) is available for review. You access your SAR by logging on to studentaid.gov with your FSA ID. If corrections are needed, follow the instructions carefully and correct any missing or inaccurate information.
- If you have applied for TAP, you will receive an email regarding your TAP application status.
- Be sure to respond to any questions or requests for more information by the deadline indicated or you could lose your eligibility for financial aid.
- Your college financial aid office will provide you an award letter detailing the estimated aid you are eligible to receive based on your application. Accept or decline the offer of aid by the deadline. Supply any additional documents requested.
- If you decide to take a Federal Direct Student Loan, you must complete a master promissory note (MPN). Follow the instructions on your college award letter.
