

• OUR HONOREES •

REV. GREGORY M. GOETHALS, S.J. LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL

Fr. Gregory M. Goethals, S.J., President of Loyola High School of Los Angeles, a Glendale, CA native, graduated from Loyola High in 1973 and became President in 2006. During his 17 years as President, Fr. Goethals has overseen the successful execution of the $100 million-plus Campaign for Loyola, which included shepherding the completion of the Hannon Ardolf Building complex and the upgrading of Loyola Hall as well as spearheading and completing the remodeling of Ruppert Hall for the Jesuit Community's living quarters and the Advancement offices. Both he and Loyola High School have been instrumental to Verbum Dei since 2000 when the Jesuits arrived at Verbum Dei. Fr. Greg served on the Verbum Dei Jesuit board from 2007-14. The doors of Loyola have always been open to hosting events such as our faculty retreats and our Corporate Work Study Program end-of-year reception. Loyola has supported the Gala for the past 16 years. Fr. Greg and Loyola, are without a doubt a true example of A.M.D.G. It is our distinct pleasure to recognize their service to Verbum Dei Jesuit.

DAN & SUE WHITE

Dan and Sue White have been active supporters of Verbum Dei Jesuit for over 20 years. Their deep respect for Jesuit education is what drew them to the Verb, and it was fellow Santa Clara University alum Fr. Scott Santarosa, S.J. who asked them to teach at the Verb after Dan's retirement from a successful career as an actuary. Beginning in the 1999-2000 school year, Sue and Dan began tutoring students and in 2000, they moved into the classroom as Advanced Math teachers. In addition to volunteering as math teachers, Sue and Dan have participated in the Adopt-A-Student Program. Through teaching and mentoring legions of Verb students, they have forged lifelong relationships with many of our alumni. Sue and Dan have been loyal sponsors of the Annual Gala, and a steadfast example of the type of person we hope the young men of Verbum Dei Jesuit seek to emulate as adults and members of their own communities. The entire Verbum Dei Jesuit community is deeply appreciative of Dan and Sue White's generosity and excited to honor them as a 2023 Gala Honoree.