3) Superintendent Report

Superintendent Josh Hurt

- In recognition of School Counseling Week, we would like to thank the hard work and dedication of our counselors, Brandy Morgan, Jamie Howard, Allyson Davis, Kim Coleman, Heidi Coleman, and Sherry Phelps. The two mental counselors the board approved hiring two years ago have benefited our schools, staff, and students.
- It is also FRYSC Week. A big thank you to Patty Bunch, Lori Eskridge, Judy Thompson, and Amy London for the work they do with family resources and youth services.
- The high school roof project is underway. It is a little behind schedule. Actual roof materials should arrive in the next couple of days.
- The 2023-2024 School Calendar is an action item on the agenda tonight. It is similar to recent past schedules with no significant changes. Thanks to Mr. Allen Trotter, Mrs. Karen Blythe, and the Calendar Committee for their work.
- Action item 5C has to do with student insurance. If approved, our student insurance coverage will remain with K&K through Roberts Insurance Group. This is a renewal. There is no rate or premium increase. Coverage remains the same.
- Mrs. Rachel Dial took the Deeper Learning Team to GRREC today. This team is working to not only improve test scores but to make sure we serve each child so that they have options and opportunities to learn and have great experiences for success during their school years and after graduation.

Michael Gill

- MCES academic team will compete in district competition this week in Cumberland County.
- MCES Jr. Beta brought home several awards from the state convention. The technology team (Landon Blythe, Anthony VanDuyn, Jett Simpson, and Talon Hood) won first place.
- First place champions in portfolio were Lilly Grissom and Rosalee Lunz.
- Service learning finished second (Raelynn Miller, Emily Profit, and Rory Bragg).
- Woodworking first place was Sam Grider. He was also Best in Show for all visual arts.
- Anime drawing fifth place was Caroline Flowers.
- Quilling fifth place was Braelyn Rogers.
- First place champions in the scavenger hunt were Sam Grider, Jase Harper, Raelynn Miller, Sam Bell, and Rory Bragg.
- Beta sponsors Lindsey Thomas and Nikki Jolly won the John W. Harris Educator of Excellence Award and the GOLD Key Award.
- The first NTI Day went well.
- MCES students and staff are participating in dress-up week for FRYSC Week in honor of Mrs. Patty and Mrs. Lori.

Jamie Moss

- Action item 5D. A student has medical concerns and a doctor's statement, so our team recommends a shortened day/week.
- Action item 5E. Section 504 Procedures are new regulations from the federal government that need board approval.

Matt Shirley

- Bowling just wrapped up its season in the regional competition in Paducah.
- Archery competed in the Class A Tournament in Bowling Green.
- A week from Monday is the first day of practice for spring sports. The first softball/baseball games are March 13.
- This Saturday is Senior Night for winter sports athletes.
- We host the 16th District Basketball Tournament starting Feb. 19. Our girls have locked up the number one seed. The boys could be the 1, 2, or 3 seed, depending on the outcomes of tonight's games.

Jenny Stotts

- MCMS Beta students had a great showing at the state convention.
- Beta sponsor Buddie Brockman does a fantastic job with the students. The entire club won the GOLD Key Award.
- First place service learning went to Morgan Avery and Zaylee Boswell.
- First place scavenger hunt went to Amelia Slinker, Alivia Acree, Abby Shirley, and Lily Horton.
- First place in recyclable arts went to Peyton Lawhon.
- First place drawing went to Elyda Hicks.
- Second place on-site drawing went to Elyda Hicks.
- Second place painting went to Allee Decker.
- Second place in woodworking went to Branham Stilts.
- Fourth place mixed media went to Cade Huffman.
- Fourth place on-site painting went to Allee Decker.
- The MCMS academic team participated in the regional competition in Green County. Zhan Yang placed 2nd in social studies. Logan Harlow placed 5th in math.
- Carly Harlow recently won 1st place in the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet's Adopt-A-Highway Art Contest.
- Five middle school students were chosen for the Southern Kentucky East All-Star Basketball Team: Chance Garrett, Cade Huffman, Harper Hurt, Jozie Allen, and Lily Blythe. Chance, Cade, and Harper will be playing in the game on Feb. 18 in Bowling Green.
- In honor of National School Counseling Week, we applaud Jamie Howard and Heidi Coleman. And in honor of FRYSC Week, there will be a surprise and delight this week for them.

Clint Graham

- We recently celebrated FRYSC WEEK. We appreciate Mrs. Judy Thompson and Mrs. Amy London for all that they do.
- It's National School Counseling Week. We appreciate Ms. Brandy Morgan and Ms. Heidi Coleman.
- A big shout out to our Beta students and our sponsor Mrs. Shoffner for a great showing at the state convention. We had four 1st-place finishes. We took first place in the scavenger hunt. Travis Harper took 1st place in 11th-grade biomedical. Kyndal DeWeese took 1st place in 10th-grade Spanish. Shiloh Keller took 1st place in 10th-grade agriscience. Colton Huffman took 3rd place in visual arts mixed media. Bree Jolly took 3rd place in quilting. Alyssa Williams took 4th place in 10th-grade language arts.

- District ACT will be on April 18th, and we are offering that to all 9th-12th graders at a discounted rate.
- Schedule Preview Night went well, with approximately 100 students attending. Lawton Avery was the winner of the 70-inch screen TV.
- Interested students recently took the ASVAB. We provided feedback on the ASVAB with one of their program managers.
- MCHS has implemented Hornet Time, in which teachers are working with students on improving skills identified on their TruScore test (practice ACT test). Teachers are also meeting with those students individually to set goals.
- WKU Honor Band - Aidan Grindle, Brooklyn Green, Jackson Simpson
- January's Graduation went well, and it was a great ceremony. We had nine graduates.
- The Academic Team did well at the Governor's Cup. Every student placed in a content assessment category. Several will go to regional.
- We had several LCMEA Honor Band members.
- End-of-semester senior mock interviews went very well. A big thanks to the community for participating.
