Addressing Equity to Improve Outcomes for English Learners and ELs with Disabilities

Keynote speaker: Dr. Francisco Escobedo

Dr. Escobedo is currently the Executive Director of the National Center for Urban School Transformation (NCUST); he also serves as a member of the State Board of Education (SBE) and serves as a co-chair on the State Superintendent's Literacy Task Force and as part of the Board of Directors for WestEd. Dr. Francisco Escobedo has been an educator for the better part of 30 years. Since 2001, Dr. Escobedo has served as adjunct professor of Educational Leadership at San Diego State University (SDSU) and is currently a member of the doctoral faculty.

Participants will:

1. Explore tools and resources to support a more equitable pre-referral process for English Learners
2. Review recent dashboard data to identify trends and areas of need related to ELs and ELs with disabilities
3. Reflect on current practices to ensure that teams are making appropriate and informed decisions prior to referring English learners for special education evaluation
