No employee, contractor or agent of the School Board may assist a School Board employee, contractor or agent in obtaining a new job, apart from the routine transmission of administrative and personnel files, if the employee, contractor or agent knows, or has probable cause to believe, that such school employee, contractor or agent engaged in sexual misconduct regarding a minor or student in violation of law. This prohibition does not apply if the information giving rise to probable cause:

13
14	1. A.	Has been properly reported to a law enforcement agency with jurisdiction
15		over the alleged misconduct; and
16	B.	Has been properly reported to any other authorities as required by federal
17		or state law, including title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C.
18		§ 1681 et seq.) and the regulations implementing it; and 19
20	2. A.	The matter has been officially closed or the prosecutor or police with
21		jurisdiction over the alleged misconduct has investigated the allegations
22		and notified school officials that there is insufficient information to
23		establish probable cause that the school employee, contractor or agent
24		engaged in sexual misconduct regarding a minor in violation of law; or 25	B.	The school employee, contractor or agent has been charged with, and 26		acquitted or otherwise exonerated of the alleged misconduct; or
27	C.	The case or investigation remains open and there have been no charges
28		filed against, or indictment of, the school employee, contractor or agent within 4
29		years of the date on which the information was reported to a law enforcement
30		agency.
31
32	The School Board shall apply its personnel policies and regulations to all employees in a fair and
33	equitable manner.
34
35	School Board personnel policies will be reviewed at least every five years and updated as 36	needed. Employee input will be considered in the revision of personnel policies. Revisions and
37	additions shall be subject to approval by the School Board.
