Learning Behaviour - Respectful/Resilient/Resourceful/Reflective/Relationships

Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Jermaine	To listen	Jermaine tried really hard yesterday in PE to make sure he was listening carefully and following instructions, which is something that he often finds challenging. Well done Jermaine, Miss Emery is very proud of you!
	Amy	Resilience	Amy always shows great resilience towards her learning, particularly in maths. She demonstrates a fantastic attitude. Well done Amy!
3G	Harry	Resilience	Harry wrote a fantastic adventure story that was thrilling to read! We have seen some fantastic learning from Harry this week - we are so proud of you!
	Shaima	Resilience, reflection	Shaima's spelling scores have shot through the roof recently! Such a huge improvement. Well done, Shaima. 3G are very proud of you!
3U	Amir	Resourceful, Reflective	Amir has been putting in his best effort into all of our lessons. He is always coming in with the right attitude towards his friends and staff. He will often consider what he needs to complete a task and will gather resources if he needs them.
	Ethan	All 5 R's	Ethan has at different points this week shown how a park hill student should go about their learning. He is always respectful towards others, shows constant improvement in his learning as he reflects on teacher comments and pushes himself to give his best in every area of his learning. Well Done!
4D	Jackson and Zara	Respect and relationship	Jackson and Zara are consistently kind, respectful and considerate of others. They have been great buddies this term by helping people complete their learning in class to a very high standard. Keep it up.
4L	Nishaa	Reflective	Nishaa has really impressed me with her attitude in class over the past couple of weeks. She gives good answers in class and has taken a real pride in the presentation of her learning since gaining her pen licence. Well done!
	Zunash	Resourceful	Zunash has been extremely resourceful over the past couple of weeks. She has produced some lovely writing and has been contributing so much more to lessons recently. Keep it up, Zunash!
4P	Anaya	Reflective	During Maths this week, Anaya asked some questions which led to great discussions in the class about multiplying numbers by 10, 100,

			1000s. Thank you for adding more curiosity to our class discussions, well done Anaya!
	Samara	Relationships and kindness	Samara has gone above and beyond this week to ensure her friends are on task in the classroom by motivating them to keep going with their learning, even if it seems tricky. Thank you for being a kind role model, Samara.
5F	Ashwant	All 5Rs and Golden Rules	Ashwant is a superstar! He is the most amazing role model for others in so many ways, the effort he puts into his learning, his helpfulness, his behaviour in class, his kindness and politeness to others.. The list goes on! He (and Nikita) made a fantastic poster for our Maths display, too. Thank you Ashwant!
	Nina	Resilient Do listen	Nina's engagement in lessons has really impressed 5F this week. She has been motivated and resilient in Maths, helping to explain multiplying fractions to the class. She even stayed in for some time at break to finish her amazing plan of Galileo's diary entry in English, which shows the pride and care she takes in her learning.
5I	Harshada	Resourceful	Harshada has been exceptionally curious this week. She was able to research about different astronomers linked to our SPACE theme this term. Her facts even helped her in the science lessons. Well Done
	Jaelon	Resilient	Jaelon completed his Science learning really well today. He was able to remember the differences between a Heliocentric and Geocentric model and link it to Galileo's discovery.
	David (from Miss Parkhouse)	Resilience	During our CSMA rehearsal yesterday, David was focused and motivated to learn his new songs for our upcoming concert, despite not ever singing some of the songs before. Thank you for persevering and trying your best.
	Kyiah (from Mrs Cooper)	Resourceful	For sharing her answer so articulately in Merit Assembly explaining the differences between a Heliocentric and Geocentric model. Thank you Kyiah! You have a lot of knowledge and shared it so clearly with the school. This was extremely impressive!
5K	Tahiry and Niyah	Resilience	Tahiry and Niyah have worked hard this week to understand the concept of multiplying mixed numbers and integers. With their perseverance they can now apply their understanding successfully.
	Shravan	Resourceful	Shravan has impressed me with his research about Galileo Galilei and he used all the facts carefully to create an amazing timeline reflecting the chronology of all the important events.

6A	Arjundev	Resilient	Arjundev has been making a conscious effort this week to make sure that he is aiming high by paying attention to detail and using the success criteria to help him. Well done!
	Methuki	Golden Rules	Methuki is always kind and helpful in and around the classroom. She helps others around her without them asking and respects their opinions.
6H	Rufus And Ethan	Reflective Do concentrate	Rufus and Ethan have been reflective and have worked hard to improve their learning behaviour. They are now more engaged in lessons and making more contributions to class discussions. Keep it up!
6M	Umar	Respectful	For showing impeccable behaviour during lunch times in the refectory. After eating Umar clears up, sits down quietly and waits for instructions on what to do next. Well done Umar!
	Aayushi	Reflective and Resilience	I have been impressed with Aayushi's attitude to better herself. She has used the feedback from marking to better her writing and has evidenced 2 pieces of strong writing. Well done Aayushi and keep it up!
Mrs Pratt	Yousef 4P	Resilience	Completing his maths learning with a positive attitude. Well done Yousef!
Mrs Cooper	Oscar 3G	Eco- Leadership	For wonderful Eco-Leadership and asking for donations to the Rainforest Trust instead of birthday party gifts. This is amazing Oscar! Thank you for being such a good role model.
Mrs Cooper	Karthik 3G	Eco- Leadership	For working very hard on creating a poster which will inspire others to become more aware of the materials they use and how to recycle and keep our environment clean. Well done Karthik! Thank you for all your hard work and wonderful Eco-Leadership!
