Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Tyler-James	Resilience	Tyler-James has demonstrated how resilient he can be with his learning and has become much more independent - especially with his writing. Well done Tyler!
	Matthew & Dhruvika	Relationships	Matthew is our newest member of 3E and has settled in really well. This is partly thanks to Dhruvika who has been really supportive and helping him in class. Welcome to Park Hill, Matthew!
3G	Danick	Resilience	Danick was able to ignore distractions this week so he could do his best in his learning. This shows great resilience and concentration - we are proud of you, Danick!
	Emily	Resilience	Emily showed impressive control of a hockey stick during 3G's hockey lesson yesterday. She was focussed and was able to have fantastic control of the ball - we were so impressed! Well done!
3U	Eleni, Mishika, Nikki and Ritik	creativity in art	All of these children showed amazing focus and creativity in their art this week, practising the skills shown by the teacher and also coming up with their own skills to add to their artwork. Stay creative!
	Indigo	reflective	Indigo has been very reflective about his writing in class during our diary writing about Shackleton's journey. He has shown excellent focus in class and has aimed to improve his own writing.
4D	Harry, Rebecka, Armand, Navami	Reflective, relationships and respectful.	These children have all been showing great learning behaviours in our phonics sessions; they listen well, support each other and are improving in their reading and writing every time we work together, well done from Miss Mills.
4L	Prithvi	Reflective	Prithvi has started to listen to instructions and is now much more settled in 4L. He gives really good answers in class and is trying his best. Keep this up!
	Omkar	Resourceful and Relationships	Omkar is a kind and caring member of the class who always looks out for others. Thank you! He also produced a brilliant piece of home learning showing the different layers of the rainforest.
4P	Yousuf	Respect and Resilience	Yousuf took it upon himself to fix something in our classroom yesterday. Instead of deciding to leave something broken which we all use daily in the classroom, Yousuf demonstrated great resilience to fix it so that everyone in his class could use it again.

			Thank you for being so considerate! From Miss Parkhouse and 4P.
	Mahith	Reflective	Mathith goes above and beyond to present his learning in a very mindful and careful way. Mahith has been setting high expectations on presentation in all of his learning, taking pride in what he has produced and is keen to share this with his buddies. Thank you for setting such a brilliant example.
5F	Ayse	Reflective Resilient	Ayse put lots of effort into her writing this week, and as a result produced a fantastic diary entry from the perspective of Galileo. It was full of all the features we talked about during the WMAG lesson, as well as the key historical facts we had learned. Not only this, she always performs her role as lunch leader very well every day. Thanks for your help Ayse!
	Louis	ALL 5 Rs	Louis is a brilliant role model for others in 5F. He always demonstrates great listening skills and kind, considerate behaviour. Ms Fairtlough was especially impressed during the fire drill yesterday as he was calm, silent and sensible and showed us all how it should be done. Well done Louis! This merit is very well-deserved.
5I	Aaryav	Resilience	Aaryav has been on a winning streak lately with his spellings. He always learns each list off by heart and has received full marks week after week. GREAT SPELLER!
	Aratrika	Resourceful	She went home after her PHYSICS lesson this week and researched more information about the phases of the moon. It was brilliant to see her shine in something she loves. I was OVER THE MOON WHEN I READ HER RESEARCH (GET IT! )
5K	Lateefa	All 5 Rs	Lateefa is a role model of 5K, she is always respectful to everyone. Lateefa tries her best in every lesson and supports her peers with their learning as well. You are a star, Lateefa.
	Gloria	Reflective	Gloria has taken all the feedback constructively and shown an amazing improvement in her Maths learning. She now challenges herself with Digging Deeper questions and shares answers confidently with the class.
6A	Adhav And Meena	All 5 R's	Both these children are always ready to start the day by making sure they have the right resources. They consistently show fantastic learning behaviours that can be seen in their learning in school and at home.
6H	Halel	Resilient	Halel has become a much more resilient learner. She engages well during lessons and perseveres even when she finds the learning challenging. Keep it up!
