Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Molinae	Relationships	Molinae has shown great curiosity throughout STEM Week. She has also been a fantastic friend to her classmates and helped them this week too.
	Arthur	All 5 Rs	Arthur has thrown himself into STEM Week. He has come up with some fantastic ideas throughout and really started to think outside of the box. It has been lovely to see him working so well as part of a team.
3G	Avana, Anise & Miracle	All 5RS	These children have really gotten involved with STEM Week this week. They have all been super resilient, used their good relationships and were resourceful - especially when being inspectors on Skill Builder Day! Well done, girls!
3U	Zakh	Resourceful and Responsible	Zakh has shown his skills by being really helpful in class, helping Miss Walsh and some of the other children in our ICT lesson.
	Sara, Aditi and Sasha	Resourceful, Relationships	Sara and Aditi worked really well in including Sasha in building a boat on Monday. They found different ways to overcome the language barrier and wired to create an excellent boat. I look forward to seeing it set sail!
4D	Dua, Rebecka and Anaya	Relationships and reflective	During STEM week, these children were able to improve their communication skills and accept help from their team. Well done. Keep it up.
	Akshaj and Armand	Relationships	During our Skills Builder Day and DT Day, these children were able to work really well in group challenges, showing great teamwork. Keep it up.
4L	Tiana, Lalithsai and Ishan.	Resourceful and reflective	For giving excellent reasons for their decisions of which character stole the chocolate on CSI day. 4L were really impressed by how they explained their reasoning to come up with their conclusions. Well done!
	Michelle, Siddhi and Yoshika.	Resilient and resourceful	For focusing really well on the experiments and tasks set them in STEM week. They have been positive in group settings, designed some great nets for their dream houses in DT and have shown excellent team work in any group they worked with.

4P	Sakeena	Relationships	During our Skills Builder Day, Sakeena really focused on the teamwork Skills Builder. In particular, making sure that her friends in her group were taking turns when speaking and ensured everyone's fantastic ideas, including her own, were heard and valued. Well done Sakeena!
	Eren and Anvith	Curiosity and Reflective	Throughout the Skills Builder Day, both pupils particularly shone when taking time to consider who stole the chocolate. Eren was using what had been said in the voice recordings to come to his conclusion and Anvith used his prior knowledge on Fairy Tales to support his ideas. A fantastic attitude and effort from both!
5F	Josh Hall	golden rules - do be helpful	Josh helped the whole class today by sensibly folding and tidying up the cardboard after our creative DT lesson making an articulated grabber. He even offered to stay in at lunch break to continue tidying which was very kind. Thanks Josh! From Mrs Stott: well done Josh for working hard to be less forgetful with your belongings, keep it up!
	Reyansh	relationships	Reyansh always fosters positive relationships with others through his kindness and politeness. He always wishes his teacher a good break or lunch as he leaves, and enters the class with a smile and a 'good morning' every day. He is kind and helpful to his peers which has been especially evident this week during the group STEM activities
5I	Ella and Umar	Resourceful/ Resilience	These two children were great examples of computer scientists today. During their DT Coding lessons they were able to successfully code a 'micro bit' to move on a terrain and persevered when some of the algorithms were not working. Outstanding Effort!
	Zidane	Relationships	Zidane was extremely kind today -a child in year 5 forgot their resources for a DT lesson and he willingly gave the child some. What a fantastic attitude to have.
5K	Lola	Respectful and Relationships	Lola is a role model of 5K, She is respectful towards all her peers and adults. With a very positive attitude, she supports everyone who needs help. Well done Lola!
	Harsh And Antasiya	Resilience	Harsh and Antasiya have very enthusiastically participated in all the STEM activities this week. They are great team players and reflected their resilience by persevering in all the tasks this week.
6A	Nivi, Sahana, Zahid and Haadee	Resilience	All these children have shown fantastic engagement during STEM week and been resilient in all the activities too - well done.

6H	Kyrese and Raksha	Do concentrate Relationships	Kyrese and Raksha have shown great curiosity during STEM week. They have been able to work well in group challenges, showing great team work skills and have been engaged in the activities throughout the week. Well done!
6M	Shahir	Resilience and Reflective	After reflecting about his behaviour during team work activities earlier in the week. Shahir positively changed his attitude and was actively involved in all the other activities and was also encouraging other children who found some of the activities challenging.
	Soliana, Janell and Naumie	Helpful	Thank you for being so helpful in setting up, distributing resources and tidying up after completing the various activities during this busy week. Your services have been very much noticed and appreciated.
	Soliana	Resourceful	This week in breakfast club, Soliana made a beautiful sign to remind everyone where the breakfast table is; thank you for your part in making breakfast club a better place for everyone!
