Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	All of 3E		For all making a wonderful effort for today's WBD Some lovely costumes.
3G	Akshay & Amira	Relationships, Respectful	For always showing positive relationships with other children. They are always kind, always generous and always show respect towards others. I couldn't be more proud of them. Well done.
3U
4D	Olive, Hafsa and Sami	Resilient Kind and Respectful	Olive, Sami and Hafsa are kind and respectful members of 4D. They always try their very best in lessons and never give up. This is a fantastic attitude to learning, well done! Keep it up!
	Luca	Reflective	Luca has started his writing for the lesson and at the beginning he just gave up. After some time reflecting on what he can achieve, he persevered and wrote a lovely introduction to his balanced argument. Well done!
4L	Papa	Resilience	For being resilient in maths. Papa was solving correspondence problems this week but found it difficult to use a systematic approach to obtain all of the possible combinations. He was very resilient and kept trying until he was able to be systematic. Great job!
	Jlla	Respectful and resourceful	Jlla is a brilliant role model showing others how to listen and do as the teacher asks. She has also produced an excellent rainforest maths home learning this week to help with our times tables.
4P	Elanur	Resilience	Elanur wrote an amazing introduction to her balanced argument, which was full of modal verbs and powerful language. I really look forward to reading the rest of your balanced argument about whether deforestation is necessary once it has been completed!
	Joshua	Reflective	Joshua has entered into Book Day with a fantastic attitude. Joshua has remained on task and used his knowledge of superheroes to create his own in his comic strip to help save the Rainforest. Well done Joshua!

	Shreyan	Resourceful and Reflective	Shreyan has written a fantastic opening paragraph to his balanced argument about whether deforestation is necessary or not. Thank you for using your prior learning and research to support your ideas so well.
5F	Emma	All 5	For being sensible, listening to instructions and taking accurate measurements during our science experiment about moon craters this week. Emma demonstrated amazing teamwork skills with her group- well done!
	Sai	Relationships	Sai has offered his help many times throughout this week, whether it be handing out resources, helping a buddy with their learning, or tidying up the classroom. Thank you Sai, your kindness has not gone unnoticed!
5I	Diyaan, Akash, Nethra	Relationships	These children worked exceptionally well during their Science investigation this week. They all worked well in their teams to investigate the sizes of craters with different sized meteors that were dropped into MOON DUST!
	Rishaan	Resourceful	In guided reading we have moved onto a new book called Hidden Figures. Rishaan went home and used his curiosity to research more facts about the figures and created a wonderful slide show. Well done!
5K	Siddhi	All 5R's	Siddhi is a hardworking member of 5K. She always maintains a positive attitude towards all her learning. She is always respectful and polite towards all her peers.
	Nyeemah	Resourceful	Nyeemah has been an amazing Digital leader, She fulfils all her responsibilities independently and smoothly. Well done, Nyeemah!
6A	Sienna and Emanuela	Resilient	For their fantastically written instructions on how to make your own homemade aqueduct. It was clear, concise and exciting to read!
	Arnav	5Rs	For settling well into PHJS. He has worked exceptionally well in lessons and has tried his best to build relationships. You are a lovely addition to 6A. Keep up the hard work!
6H	Rufus and Arnav	Book day	Rufus has been a role model today! He has engaged with all the activities and set an example to the rest of the class. Arnav has been very resourceful creating his book day costume himself. Well done!
