Talk Sup Week 27 Review and Preview

March 20, 2023

Good morning Sayreville! I hope you had a relaxing and enjoyable weekend. Welcome to another edition of Talk Sup, my weekly newsletter.

This past week, our students, staff, alumni, and community members continued to impress us with their remarkable accomplishments. We begin by commending and congratulating Sayreville War Memorial High School (SWMHS) students Nawar Rahman (12th grade) and Aidan Sylvester (11th grade) who were honored last Wednesday evening as Sayreville's Unsung Heroes during the Middlesex County School Boards Association and the Middlesex County of Association of School Administrators Unsung Hero Dinner at Old Bridge High School. We also commend Mrs. Bloom, Sayreville Board of Education Vice President, who coordinated this event and served as the master of ceremonies. In addition, we commend and thank Angela Pistilli, a 2020 graduate of SWMHS, who visited Ms. Mojzsis' Advanced Art, Art Workshop, and AP Art History classes last week. Angela talked about her life as an art student at Boston University, including the admissions process, the artwork she's made over the past several years, the classes she's been taking, and her semester abroad. She's already shown her work in a gallery in Boston, which is in the process of buying one of her pieces.

Furthermore, she'll be performing her second internship with a major art gallery in New York City this summer. Finally, we congratulate and commend Mr. Gliddon, SWMHS Woodshop Teacher, for being selected by the faculty at the high school as the March Teacher of the Month. Bomber Nation salutes all our students, staff, and community members for representing Sayreville in such an impeccable manner. They Rock!

schools, students and staff celebrated St. Patrick's Day. At Project Before at Selover and Cheesequake, students and staff were treated to Irish bagpipers and a drum parade. After that, they participated in the Domino Cereal Challenge, in which 230 boxes of cereal were generously donated by Selover families to help local families in need. We thank Ms. Iglesias, Art Teacher at Cheesequake, for coordinating this wonderful charity event. At the Arleth School, students and staff participated in Wellness Week where among many things, they learned how to Five Finger Breathe for calmness and working through big feelings. In addition, students made and donated coffee sleeves for the Bomber Beyond Café.

At the Samsel Upper Elementary School (SUES) students participated in both the March Madness Tournament of Books and March Mathness. Additionally, students dissected owl pellets. At the middle school, students in the Career Club visited the Teterboro Airport with Ms. Hoff and Ms. Young. Furthermore, middle school math teachers participated in Mobymax training so that they can effectively utilize this resource to improve student outcomes in mathematics. Lastly, at SWMHS, students participated in the Middlesex County Teen Arts Festival where they had a wonderful time engaging in numerous art workshops at Middlesex County College. In fact, the artwork of Kyriaki Kakadelis placed and is now moving onto the state level. The students and staff also faced off against one another in the annual Faculty vs. Students Basketball Game.

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 pm, there will be a Board of Education (BOE) Business Meeting in the new BOE Room at the Samsel Upper Elementary School. During the meeting, the Board will celebrate the
