

Walker LAUNCH Application Process 2023

Thank you for your interest in Walker LAUNCH. In order to be considered for entry into Walker LAUNCH, please complete the following steps. If you plan to participate in dual-enrollment classes, all of these steps must be submitted by March 31, 2023; your submission should be sent to Julie Portwood: julieportwood@walkerschools.org. If you have questions during the process, you may ask a school counselor, or you can email any questions that you have to julieportwood@walkerschools.org.

The LAUNCH selection committee will meet to review all applications. A representative from the committee will contact you with their decision or with specifics about any additional information that is needed to complete the application process. All GNTC applications must be submitted by April 30, 2023. There is financial paperwork that must be submitted with the GNTC application.

Step #1: Complete the Walker LAUNCH Interest Form.

Step #2: Create a brief video or written paragraph of introduction to share with the committee. (Your video should be no longer than three minutes, and your paragraph should be no longer than 500 words.) Tell us about your interests, your goals, your personality, your reasons for wanting to join the program, and anything else you would like the committee to know about you. Upload your video or paragraph to Google Drive and share it with Julie Portwood: julieportwood@walkerschools.org.

Step #3: The committee will conduct virtual interviews with top candidates or with candidates for whom we have additional questions. If the committee wishes to interview you, you will be notified via your walkerschools email address.
