DATE: March 22, 2023

Wednesday Block Schedule

SCHEDULE:

Today in History: In honor of Women's History Month and Title IX we learn about Dr. Bernice R. Sadler. She has spent over 40 years advocating women's rights and is today widely known as the "Godmother of Title IX" for her pivotal role in the creation and implementation of Title IX. Dr. Sandler began fighting for the rights of women in education after she personally experienced sex discrimination when she was told she came on "too strong for a woman" to be hired in academia. She then went on to work with President Lyndon Johnson on an Executive Order that prohibited sex discrimination within institutions with federal contracts. Sadler then spearheaded hearings which documented discrimination in employment and education and eventually led to the passage of Title IX and other anti-discrimination laws.
