

What is a School-Parent Compact?

A compact explains how parents and teachers will work together to make sure all our students reach grade-level standards. This compact is a voluntary agreement between Haynes Northwest Academy staff, Haynes Northwest Academy students and their parents to work together in an effort to improve student achievement, foster parental involvement and assure student success.

Communicating about Student Learning

Haynes Northwest Academy is committed to two-way communication with families about their child/children's learning. The following are some ways of communicating throughout the year:

- Email teachers/staff
- Parent-teacher conference
- Parentlink
- Telephone calls
- School Website and Social Media Sites
- ClassDojo
