

A $5,000 Grant Could Be Yours! Find Out How.

Alliant International University now offers financial support to classified staff.

If you are currently working in a classified position at a California school district or county office of education, you could be eligible for the Pathway to Teaching grant. This grant can help partially fund your online teaching credential program at the California School of Education (CSOE) at Alliant. We prepare students to earn their credentials in multiple subject teaching, single subject teaching, and education specialist instruction, mild/moderate disabilities.

Alliant Credential Programs:

- Provide online platforms with start dates every 8 weeks
- Can be completed in as little as 14-16 months
- Offer Student Teaching and Intern Pathways (be the Teacher of Record in as little as 8 weeks)
- Weave multiculturalism throughout a curriculum that is rooted in diversity and inclusion
- Provide support and resources from advisors and credential analysts throughout your program
- Provide complimentary access to study.com to assist with exam preparation

We train future teachers in the necessary skills and hands-on experience to lead in the classroom with confidence. Contact us today to learn more!

LEARN MORE AT:
alliantu.co/csoegrant

About CSOE

The California School of Education offers degrees, certificates, and credentials in education that prepare you to make a lasting difference through teaching, counseling, leadership, advocacy, administration, management, and community work. We are here to guide you every step of the way and to prepare you with tools to inspire generations to come.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:
Kimberly Gregorovic, MEd
Director, Partnerships and Community Outreach

kimberly.gregorovic@alliant.edu
(858) 635-4009