

Articulation Agreement between
Delaware Valley University and
Eastern Center for Arts and Technology

The purpose of this articulation agreement is to provide an articulation process whereby Eastern Center for Arts and Technology students that successfully complete the programs of study identified below, will receive University credits for the programs, while attending Delaware Valley University.

The goals of the articulation process are to:

- a. Provide students with a wide variety of academic coursework that prepare them for a baccalaureate degree;
- b. Recognize and reward students for university-level competencies achieved during high school;
- c. Assist students in making a smooth transition from high school to post-secondary education.

University credits earned through this articulation agreement will offer students additional flexibility in course selection and allow students to earn credits that can be transferred to DeVal and applied toward their degree requirements.

Eastern Center for Arts and Technology students who successfully complete the CASE – Principles of Agriculture Science-Animal course below, can receive University credit from Delaware Valley University for the following course:

CASE- Principles of Agriculture Science – Animal (3 credits)- this course satisfies 3 credits of restricted electives in the Animal Science major.

Acceptance of the curriculum by Delaware Valley University for these credits is based on the following:

- Eastern Center for Arts and Technology must successfully complete the CASE- Principles of Agriculture Science- Animal course with a “B” average or better (3.0 GPA on a 4-point scale).
- Submit an official transcript to the Delaware Valley University Office of Admission, listing the course and grade received by the student.

The signatures below indicate agreement to the course equivalents and stipulations listed in this document between Eastern Center for Arts and Technology and Delaware Valley University. The terms of this agreement will be reviewed periodically to reflect changes in curriculum and course offerings.
