What is Child Find?

Child Find is the school system's attempt to locate any children who are suspected of having a disability. Special education and/or related services may be recommended if a disability interferes with a child's learning. Speech/Language Therapy, Physical Therapy, and Occupational Therapy are some of the related services that may be offered.

When should a child be referred to Child Find?

- If there are birth complications or a medical condition that interferes with development and/or learning
- If a child appears to have social or emotional difficulties that interfere with his/her ability to learn
- If a child appears to learn more slowly than children his/her own age
- If a child has speech that can not be understood by others
- If a child has difficulty seeing or hearing

Who may refer children?

- Parents/legal guardians
- Other family members
- School personnel
- Physicians
- Child care providers
- Community agencies
- Infants & Toddlers Program
