Webster's agriculture education program offers a variety of classes for students. They are part of CareerTech and focus on providing work ready skills to students. The classes we offer include: wildlife management, introduction to agriscience, floral design/greenhouse management, food science, small animal/veterinary assistant, animal science, agriculture communications, and introduction to horticulture. Our students are in grades 8-12. #takeovertps #webstertps #websterffa
