

Want to become a better writer and communicator?
This course is for you!

Creative Writing

In this course, you will become a compelling writer and storyteller through studying the writing techniques of professional authors and putting this knowledge into practice in your own writing. We cover the following genres throughout the year: poetry, short stories, comics/manga, drama, novels, children's stories, non-fiction, horror, sci-fi, etc.

*No prerequisites required

Explore and develop your writing skills through writing in various genres!

What do we do in this class?

- Reading
- Writing
- Project-based learning

