Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)
Who are we? Meet our Team:

Stacy Ahrens - ADR Coordinator
Eric Anderson - Program Specialist, Special Education, Behavior programming
Jennifer Nelson - Program Specialist
Geoff Smith - School Psychologist, Bella Vista High School
Kelly Hall - School Psychologist, Preschool assessment
Goal of ADR

ADR is designed to meet the interests of the parties involved that results in a crafted, mutually agreeable, outcome.
Prevention First

Communication is key - Reciprocal, learning to listen

Knowledge is power - de-mystifying the language and process.
What is Alternate Dispute Resolution in Special Education

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is an informal method of settling disagreements that may arise during an IEP meeting.
ADR is Process

ADR uses specific options of this process to promote understanding, open communication, and satisfying solutions to conflict that support and strengthen relationships.

The San Juan Unified School District Special Education Community Advisory Committee (CAC) is a Board of Education approved committee. The CAC includes parents, community members, and San Juan staff. The CAC comes together in true partnership in an effort to fully support all children with special needs and works with the San Juan District staff to advise the District and the Board of Education concerning services for students with special needs.
