

PARMA FFA ALUMNI & SUPPORTERS SCHOLARSHIP SY 2022-2023

A $500 scholarship will be awarded by the Parma FFA Alumni & Supporters to a graduating senior who plans to study agriculture or a related area. A maximum of two scholarships will be awarded each year. The completed application is due Friday, April 14th to Mrs. Hodges and the Scholarship winner(s) will be announced at the Chapter FFA Banquet.

The Selection Committee will include the High School Agriculture teacher and three representatives from the Parma FFA Alumni & Supporters, at least one of whom must be an officer.

Criterion for the scholarship is as follows:

1. Must have senior status.
2. Must intend to enroll in an agriculture course or ag-related field of study at a Junior college, technical school or four-year school.
3. Student must have demonstrated a commitment to the FFA and/or be in some ag-related field.
4. Seniors must be a member of the FFA Chapter having paid their dues, and enrolled in an Ag Class.
5. Scholarship (GPA), leadership, character, and commitment to agriculture will be evaluated as follows:
 - A. Scholarship will be determined by accumulative GPA and student's attitude towards education.
 - B. Leadership will include involvement in FFA activities and other school-related organizations.
 - C. Character will be determined by "student attitude" both in and out of school. The conduct during school time and after school activities will be considered.
 - D. Commitment shall be determined by the student's overall participation in FFA and other ag-related organizations.
6. Scholarship is good for a junior college, technical school, or four-year school.
