Al-Anon	Al-Anon Family Groups provide support to anyone whose life is, or has been, affected by someone else's drinking, regardless of whether that person is still drinking or not. For some of our members, the wounds still run deep, even if their loved one may no longer be a part of their lives or have died.	n/a	http://www.al-anonuk.org.uk/
Nacoa	Nacoa (The National Association for Children of Alcoholics) founded in 1990 to address the needs of children growing up in families where one or both parents suffer from alcoholism or a similar addictive problem. This includes children of all ages, many of whose problems only become apparent in adulthood.	n/a	http://www.nacoa.org.uk

DrugFAM	DrugFAM's primary purpose is to provide a lifeline to families, friends and partners affected by someone else's addiction to drugs and/or alcohol and those who have been bereaved by substance misuse. We aim to ensure that those who turn to us are listened to, understood and supported. We believe passionately that no-one should struggle with the stigma from a wider society or be left in isolation, fear and ignorance of where to find support	http://www.drugfam.co.uk/contact-us/	http://www.drugfam.co.uk/active-addiction/
