

The Anthony Avent Jr. NBA Skill & Development Program
Powered by "Make Me a Prodigy"
SPECIAL SPRINGFIELD EDITION FALL 2019

Under the guidance of former NBA player and basketball skill developer Anthony Avent, "Prodigy Jr. NBA" will be leading a pre-season skills program for the Springfield Minutemen and Nettes players!

With over 30 years of playing and teaching the game on the highest level, Anthony's approach is very hands-on and detailed to ensure youth enjoy learning the game. Anthony believes the early development of a basketball player is critical to their long-term success. Player assessment is important and necessary to ensure each player is developing and putting in the time to strengthen their weaknesses. The goal of the program is to improve fundamentals, skill level, and IQ as individual and team players!

Program:

1 ½ hour training sessions, once per week for 8 weeks leading up to the season.
Minutemen and Nettes players (currently in 5th-8th grades) are eligible.
Recreation players co-ed (currently in 3rd-8th grades) are eligible.
The 1st session will include a player evaluation to assess skill development.
