Click on the Messages tab

The screenshot shows the oncourseconnect interface. At the top, there's a header with the oncourseconnect logo, a notification bell with 180 alerts, an envelope icon with 1 message, and the user name Adam Beckes. On the left is a sidebar with icons for Classroom, Dashboard, Calendar, Announcements, Academic History, and Schedule. The main content area has a yellow header bar for 'BIOLOGY: 04' with a profile picture of a man. Below this, there are three tabs: ASSIGNMENTS, RESOURCES, and MESSAGES. The MESSAGES tab is selected, and a red arrow points to it. Under the MESSAGES tab, there are three message cards: 'Label the Parts of the Cell' (Biology 04 - 9/28/20 11:59 pm), 'Hydrogen Bonding' (Biology 04 - 9/11/20 11:59 pm), and 'Label the Body Parts (TEI)' (Biology 04 - 9/8/20 11:59 pm).

Open an existing message

The screenshot shows the oncourseconnect interface with the MESSAGES tab selected. A new message thread is displayed. At the top of the thread is a blue bar that says 'New Message'. Below this, there's a message from Ms. Ferguson, dated 9/2/20 08:07 am, 6 days ago. The message is highlighted with a red border. The message content is not visible, but the header shows the sender's name and profile picture.

4

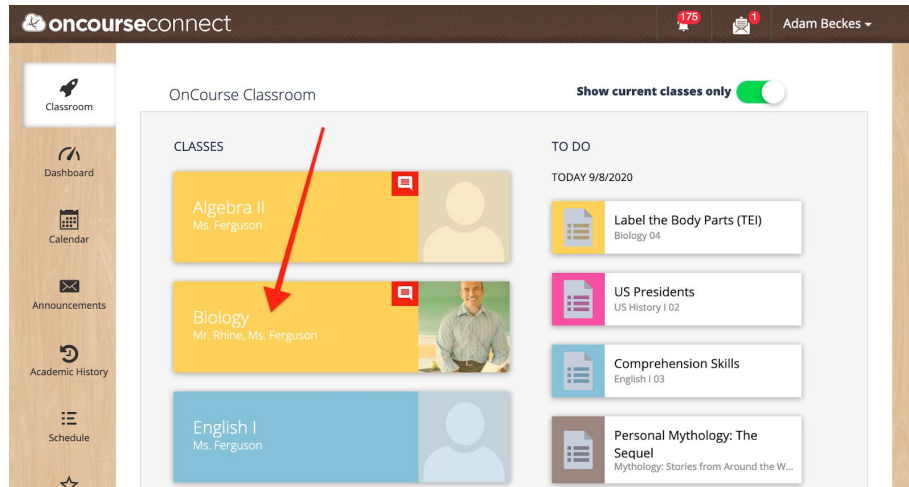

Add a comment

The screenshot shows the oncourseconnect interface with a message thread open. The thread is titled 'Biology: 04 Message Thread'. At the top, there's a search bar. The first message is from Ms. Ferguson, dated 9/2/20 08:07 am, 6 days ago. The message content is 'Welcome to Biology 101! Hope you have a good year!'. Below the message, there's a text input field with the placeholder 'Add a comment', which is highlighted with a red border. Below the input field, there are two more messages: one from Virgil Copeland and one from Louis Ballard, both dated 9/2/20 08:06 am, 6 days ago. The Virgil Copeland message says 'I will be stuck at home all day with my little brothers and sisters. It is going to be challenging, to say the least.' and the Louis Ballard message says 'Thanks for welcoming us. I'm not sure how I feel about this year. I guess time will tell.'
