

FOOD & VOCATION NETVUE REGIONAL GATHERING

APRIL 13, 14, 15 2023

Wingate University
Wingate, NC

FOOD AND VOCATION NETVUE GATHERING 2023

APRIL 13
EVENING

Thursday, April 13, 7-9pm

WELCOME

Provost Jeff Frederick, Wingate University
David Cunningham, Director, NetVUE

RECEPTION HOSTS

Shea Watts and Catherine Wright
The Collaborative for the Common Good & Wingate University Religion Dept.
Vocation Matters Blog Series (LINK)

STARDUST CELLARS RECEPTION

HINSON ART MUSEUM

Intertwining Vines -- Telling the story of the human and fermentation history over a selection of wine and meads

Stardust Cellars is an off-grid, sustainable meadery and winery specializing in method ancestral and foot-stomped, basket-pressed craft wines. Nicolas "Nico" Hogrefe, has a BS in Biochemistry from the University of California and MS in Food Science from Washington State University

DAY 2

Friday April 14, 8am-12:15pm

CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST & TABLE FELLOWSHIP

AUSTIN AUDITORIUM LOBBY

8:00am-9:10am

FOOD AND VOCATION EXPLORATIONS

AUSTIN AUDITORIUM LOBBY

9:15am-9:45am

Welcome - Carrie Hoeffler, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences
Conversation Host: Catherine Wright, Executive Director, The Collaborative for the Common Good

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

AUSTIN AUDITORIUM

10:00-11:30am

Introduction of Keynote: Shea Watts, Religion Department Wingate University
Norman Wirzba is the Gilbert T. Rowe Distinguished Professor of Christian Theology & Senior Fellow at the Kenan Institute for Ethics, Duke Divinity School

LUNCH - CHARTWELLS

AUSTIN AUDITORIUM LOBBY

11:45 - 12:15pm

Members of Wingate's Chartwell's team will be serving up local fare and how they help navigate food experiences on higher education campuses
Blessings & Grace by Harry Workman

FOOD AND VOCATION NETVUE GATHERING 2023

DAY 2

Friday April 14, 12:30 - 4:30pm

WORKSHOP SESSION A: LAND AND FOOD AS INTEGRAL TO IDENTITY (12:30-1:15PM)

- Food System Advocacy and Community Engaged Courses
Hannah V. Harrison, PhD (Wake Forest)

BATTE CENTER, 220

- Interdisciplinary Explorations of Food and Vocation to Foster Conversations About Identity in HEIs
Laura Wright, PhD (Western Carolina)

BATTE CENTER, 204

WORKSHOP SESSION B: JUSTICE AS HOSPITALITY; HOSPITALITY AS JUSTICE (1:30-2:15PM)

- Food Business as Justice: Entrepreneurial Callings
Nicolas Hogrefe, BS, MS and Certification in Business of Wine, Bioinformatics, and HACCP. He holds 10 patents on value-added products and a trademarked Ancestral Mead brand

BATTE CENTER, 220

- Food Justice Through The Lens of Hospitality & Policy
Jarred White: Farm & Faith Partnerships Project Manager, RAFI
David Allen: Project Manager for the Come to the Table Program, RAFI

BATTE CENTER, 204

PANEL: DIVINE BANQUET EXPLORATION (2:40-4:30PM)

Moderator

Catherine Wright, PhD (Wingate University)

HINSON ART MUSEUM

Panel Address

Laura Wright, PhD (Western Carolina)

Respondents

- Kris Reid: Executive Director, Piedmont Culinary Guild
- Jarred White. RAFI
- Kendall Vanderslice, Edible Theologian and Baker
- Shea Watts, Former Fellow of Creature Kind

FOOD AND VOCATION NETVUE GATHERING 2023

DAY 2
EVENING

Friday April 14, 5:00 – 9:00pm

DINNER & TABLE FELLOWSHIP (5:00PM)

HINSON ART MUSEUM

Soul Miners Garden – Farm to Vocation
Blessings & Grace – Harry Workman
The Power Wielded by Our Forks – A Reflection by Shea Watts

DOCUMENTARY SHOWING & DISCUSSION (7:00PM)

The Smell of Money (2022) (LINK)

ETHYL K SMITH LIBRARY, RM 111

Film Preview as well as a discussion with Larry Baldwin, Waterkeeper Alliance and NC CAFO Coordinator. There will be an exploration of the role of food, faith, vocation, and higher education in the quest for justice in Eastern North Carolina

DAY 3

Saturday April 15, 8:30am–11:45am

CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST & TABLE FELLOWSHIP

8:30am–9:15am

AUSTIN AUDITORIUM LOBBY

WORKSHOP SESSION C: FRUITS OF OUR LABORS (9:30–11:15AM)

- Spirituality of Bread Making -- The Leaven of Vocation WINGATE UMC CHURCH
Kendall Vanderslice, MTS
Reserve spot at Thursday Night Reception

- A Food and Vocation Case Study: Incorporating High Impact Pedagogy into Core Curriculum and Tracking Impact RECORDING - AVAILABLE ONLINE
Catherine Wright, PhD and Shea Watts, PhD (Wingate University)
Recording Available

CLOSING REMARKS (11:30AM)

WINGATE UMC CHURCH

LINK
APRIL 15-16,
2023

DONT FORGET TO CHECK OUT THE CHARLOTTE
(NC) STREETS FESTIVAL CELEBRATING CHEFS
AND NEIGHBORHOODS IN THE CHARLOTTE AREA

