- Students may NOT count novels or reading done as part of whole class assignments.
- Students MAY count books read as part of an independent reading log, free choice reading, silent reading, or at home reading requirement for an English or reading class.
- Pages counted must have been read during the third marking period only.
- It is acceptable to record parts of books. The final total needs to be at least 400 pages.
- Books may be fiction or non-fiction.
- Magazines, comic books, almanacs, books of world records, etc. may not be counted.
- We ask parents to judge the appropriateness of the reading difficulty students choose. Please remember, this is for a reward. Students should be reading at a level that is comfortable, but not below their ability.
