Such suspension shall not constitute a change in the student's educational placement. Changes in Educational Placement/Manifestation Determinations For disciplinary exclusions which constitute a change in educational placement, the district shall first determine whether the student's behavior is a manifestation of his/her disability. For students with intellectual disability, any disciplinary suspension or expulsion is a change in educational placement. A pattern exists when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The series of removals totals more than ten (10) school days in a school year;</li> <li>• The student's behavior is substantially similar to the student's behavior in previous incidents that resulted in a series of removals; and</li> </ul> |

On parent/guardian appeal, or when the district requests a due process hearing, the hearing officer may return the student to the placement from which s/he was removed or order his/her removal to an appropriate interim alternative educational setting for up to forty-five (45) school days if the hearing officer determines that maintaining the student's current placement is substantially likely to result in an injury to the student or others. Placement during appeals of disciplinary actions shall be in the interim alternative educational setting pending the decision of the hearing officer or expiration of the time period set for the disciplinary exclusion from the student's regular placement unless the district and the parent/guardian agree otherwise. Students Not Identified as Disabled/Pending Evaluation Students who have not been identified as disabled may be subject to the same disciplinary measures applied to students without disabilities if the district did not have knowledge of the disability.
