

ON BOARD

BY-THE-MINUTES REPORT

APRIL 2023

Seth McDaniel was sworn in as Chief of the CISD Police Department by Superintendent Charlie Alderman during the April CISD Board of Trustees meeting. McDaniel has experience as a police officer at Anna and Sulphur Springs.

Board recognizes student success

The CISD Board of Trustees recognized student teams for their accomplishments of the season. First up, the boys and girls powerlifting teams were honored for their performance at regionals.

The Ag Department including FFA and Ag Mechanics has been busy showing and competing in statewide and jackpot shows. The Applied Ag Engineering team competed at the state level and Orrin Cameron won first in state for torch cutting. The students showing animals look forward to the upcoming Hunt County Fair in Greenville.

CMS track athletes were also cited for their outstanding performances with 7th and 8th grade boys and 7th grade girls winning district, the highest level of competition for middle school.

During the CMS showcase, Principal Lisa Palazzetti introduced her staff and shared a video featuring school events throughout the year.

Director of Health Services Nicki Dawson presented the annual School Health Advisory Council Report citing a new partnership with Texas A&M University-Commerce and Carevide to provide behavioral health counseling including group sessions and online counseling.

Ag Mechanics teacher Courtney Goodwin proudly showcased the exemplary students in FFA and Ag Mechanics.
