1. Artist-in-Residence = Judy Dow

Dessert Reception—Judy presented the schedule of the events over the next week that each class will undertake. She shared the making of an Atel Atel and cordage that the 3rd and 4th graders did today. Her investigation into technology in Native American times was quite different for the kids than their idea of technology now. Later this group will also make baskets that will tell a story. The 5th and 6th graders discussed eugenics today with Judy and will later discover mapping. Tomorrow, the 1st and 2nd graders will use toys and games for education and math. They will participate in a nature walk and discuss color and make observations. There will be a gallery walk in the school on Friday in which all the students will get to share and teach about their projects with each other. All parents are welcome to the walk. Judy also extended the invitation to bring children to the Children's Literature session Judy will be holding for the teachers on Wednesday, April 11th from 3:15 to 4:15.

2. Treasurer's Report and Financial Update

Cassie Wills reported the profit, loss and total for the PTNO. With the receipts received so far, the BINGO night held on March 24th made $815.56. The current balance for the checking account is $7,078.17 and the current Savings balance is $813.26.

The group was happy with the turn out for the BINGO night and reported that participants had a fun night. Kelly shared that she put out cookies and gave the Para educators the gift cards from Bear Pond on April 4th.

3. Plan Pancake Breakfast set for April 28, 2018

Set up will start the night before at 5:30 pm after drama rehearsal is over. Carrie will send an email to remind folks as the date gets closer. A reservation form will go out with the newsletter this Friday. Carrie will ask Sue to collect these at school. The cost is $8 for adults, $4 for students/seniors. There will be pancakes, VT maple syrup, bacon, scrambled eggs, juice and coffee. Also a gluten free option. We will have a 50/50 raffle as well. Set up the day of the event will take place at 7:30am. Bryan Weller will be there to start cooking at 6am. The coffee station, paper goods and juice will be set up. Clean up will be any parents or community members able to stay after. There will be no formal signups for help. Carrie will request egg donations in the newsletter on Friday the 13th. Chris will ask for donations of syrup from Bragg Hill and Morse Farm. Carrie has one gallon from last year. Callie Weller will ask Drew Lamb. Callie can help serve food and advertise at school. Callie will also be the building based person, so she will get kitchen and building keys.

4. Cougar Wear Update

Chris reported that we made somewhere between 400 to 500 dollars on the orders. There were two paper orders and next year this will not be given as an option. Chris would also like to poll people to see what they want as items on the order next fall.

5. Nominations for officers in 2018-2019
