All work in relation to the controlled assessment can be found on the Google Classroom. Use this to ensure your work is up to date in preparation for the May deadline.	Research an artist of your choice that creates Lino prints of insects. This will support our class work. Evaluate the work and say how you are linking it to the theme.	All students need to engage with the revision materials for the third topic of the year (Socio-Cultural Influences) on Google Classroom.	You should complete your redraft of Component 1.
Business studies	Photography	Sport	Engineering
Review the unit 2 finance lessons on Google Classroom as revision ahead of the external finance exam in May.	Research a photographer of your choice that captures images of light reflecting. Think about the photographer we are studying in class, find someone with similar work. Evaluate the work and say how you are linking it to the theme.	All pupils need to engage with the revision materials for the topics on Google Classroom. Use this to ensure your work is up to date in preparation for the upcoming assessments.	All pupils are working in lessons on tasks. These must be completed at home if not completed in school. All work can be accessed on the Google Classroom. These will be submitted by the end of May.
History	Health and social care	Performing arts	Spanish
Engage with revision tasks shared in class and via Google Classroom. These should be submitted to Mrs Velasco via email or paper copies.	Pupils should undertake revision to consolidate the work that has been undertaken throughout the year and to prepare for an internal end of year exam. Revision materials will be posted on Google Classroom.	Pupils must continue to work on their responses for their unit 1 examination. This might involve rehearsing their performances or redrafting their coursework/design work.	Recently in class we prepared a photocard response for technology and social media. Record your response and email it to me, consider your pronunciation and accent when recording.
