STUDENT CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

The Board of School Directors is committed to fostering healthy, safe places for children to learn and grow.

In the context of this purpose, discipline should be designed to help move a child from a dependency upon external controls for managing behavior to developing the internal controls necessary for managing one's own behavior.

Student Expectations: Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful of: others, property, and their own well-being. Students are expected to be responsible for attendance, work completion, and cooperation in the classroom and other school environments. Students are expected to follow the rules set forth in the family handbook and by the classroom teacher. Basic rules of student conduct will be stated in a family handbook and distributed to all families.

Responses to student misbehavior will be progressive in nature. When student misbehavior cannot be adequately addressed in the classroom, such options as time-out and planning room will be considered before school removal is contemplated (as delineated in articles 1 through 5).

The principal or his/her designee shall be responsible for carrying out discipline procedures conforming with the following guidelines.

When suspension or expulsion of students is deemed necessary, due process requirements will be followed. The term suspension means removal from school activities for a specified amount of time that is non-negotiable. Once the specified time has elapsed, the student will return to normal school activities, unless otherwise determined by the principal in consultation with the student's parent(s) and teacher(s).

1. Emergency Removal: A student who poses a continuing danger to persons or property, or an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process of the school, shall be immediately removed from the school, or to a place within the school determined by the principal or his/her designee to be sufficiently secure to permit the academic process of the school to continue. The parent or guardian of a student who is to be removed from school will be notified by the principal, or his/her designee. If the parent or guardian cannot be located, the student will be detained at school for the remainder of the school day.

2. In School Detention or Suspensions: The principal or his/her designee may assign a student to in-school suspension for up to 10 consecutive days. The educational program of a student assigned to in-school suspension shall be continued to an extent determined to be feasible and appropriate by the principal. Students assigned to in-school detention shall be provided with a reasonable opportunity to complete academic assignments. The student and his/her parent or guardian must be given notice of the infraction, an explanation of the evidence against the student, an opportunity for the student to tell his/her side of the story, and a decision in writing to the parent or guardian. If appropriate, the school may provide counseling or related activities designed to bring about an improvement in their behavior. The school will request a parent conference before reinstating the student to pre-suspension status.

3. Suspensions for < Ten Days: The principal may suspend a student from school for a period of 10 days or less for violations of school rules. Prior to such a suspension, the student and his/her parent or guardian shall be given an opportunity for an informal hearing with the principal or his/her designee. The student and his/her parent or guardian must be given notice of the charges, an explanation of the evidence against the student, an opportunity for the student to tell his/her side of the story, and a decision in writing to the parent or guardian. The student will be responsible for class assignments during his/her period of suspension. The school will request a parent conference before reinstating the student to pre-suspension status.

4. Suspensions for > Ten Days: The principal may suspend a student for more than 10 days, but for a fixed period of time for misconduct when the misconduct makes the continued presence of the student harmful to the welfare of the school. Long-term suspension must be preceded by notice and formal due process procedures, including the opportunity for a hearing before the board. The student and his/her parents must be notified in writing of the date, time, and place of the hearing and given an opportunity to present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, to be represented by counsel, and receive a written decision within 10 days of the hearing. The notice shall also include a statement of the rule infraction(s) alleged, the potential consequences of the hearing, and a summary of the evidence to be introduced at the hearing. The student will be responsible for class assignments during his/her period of suspension. The school will request a parent conference before reinstating the student to pre-suspension status.

5. Expulsion: The superintendent or principal may recommend for expulsion any student whose misconduct makes the continued presence of the student harmful to the welfare of the school. A student may be expelled only after a majority vote of the board supporting the recommendation of the superintendent or principal, preceded by notice and a due process hearing conforming to the requirements set forth in paragraph 4 above.

6. A legal pupil who has a disability or suspected of having a disability that has yet to be diagnosed is subject to the due process protections outlined in Articles 1 through 13 of Rule 4313: Discipline Procedures for Students Eligible for Special Education Services of the Vermont Department of Education Special Education Regulations.
