Retaliation

Neither the District nor any other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or the District’s Title IX policies or procedures, or because an individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an Title IX investigation, proceeding, or hearing. Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination, including charges against an individual for code of conduct violations that do not involve sex discrimination or Title IX Sexual Harassment, but arise out of the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination, or a report or Formal Complaint of Title IX Sexual Harassment, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or the District’s Title IX policies or procedures, constitutes retaliation. Complaints alleging retaliation may be filed according to the District Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 1312.3, Uniform Complaint Procedure, or Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 4030, Nondiscrimination in Employment.

Informal Resolution Option

The District offers a Title IX Informal Resolution process to resolve allegations of Title IX Sexual Harassment other than those involving an allegation of harassment of a student by an employee. This process does not include a full investigation and determination, but instead involves facilitation or mediation between the parties. You will be contacted about the option to participate in voluntary Informal Resolution, if applicable.

By signing this document, I assert that the information listed above is true to the best of my knowledge and that I am requesting the District investigate this Formal Complaint of Title IX Sexual Harassment.
