

Please find below the notes from the School Council Meeting from 12/13/22.

-Week before the break:

-Dress up days:

Wed.-Christmas Movie Character

Thurs. Buffalo Plaid

Fri. Holiday headgear with $1 St. Jude donation

Mon.- Wear White

Tues. PJ day

Wed. Jingle Bells

Thurs. Ugly sweater

Fri. No school/teacher workday

-Finals:

Different types of finals are given, it's up to the individual teacher. If a student is going to miss, it's up to them to make arrangements with the teachers.

-Thursday-Dec. 22nd:

12:45 early release day for MS/HS. Elementary schools will have a normal day, but no ASP. 87% of students will ride the bus home.

Some parents might not be aware that this is an early dismissal day. Dr. Usry stated that we can send out a notice in Parent's Square with that info.

-Friday-Dec. 23rd:

Teacher workday. All grades must be turned in before leaving for the break.

-Basketball:

Good season, concessions open, no pizza, no drinks other than water allowed in the gym

6/7 & 7/8 Girls are tied for 2nd place

6/7 & 7/8 Boys are tied for 3rd place

-Question was addressed asking if students could stay after school to improve attendance/funds for home games. Answer was essentially, we don't have the man power to accommodate that currently. It will be considered for next season, but nothing has been decided.

-GoFan-people don't like the fees, but it's a county-based decision.

-Elementary and High School transitions:

Currently establishing a timeline that will be finalized in Jan. 2023.

-STEM Certification:

CCSD is looking for all middle schools to be certified. Different data will be collected to aid in certification to show proof of learning.

-STEM Family night:

Tues. Jan. 24th at 6:30 PM. Parents will walk through different stations and participate in STEM activities

-Trends in education/County information:

N/A

-Agenda ideas for next meeting:

Possible discussion on ELA standards changing 2024-2025
Elementary and High School transitions.
