Register with the Selective Service System.

There is no draft, but it is the law.

Virtually all men living in the United States and its citizens abroad are required to register when they turn 18. That includes U.S. immigrants and undocumented men. It's remarkably easy. It'll just take two minutes online on your smart phone @sss.gov or pick up a registration form at any post office.

Contact: