

Semi-Annual Bullying/Harassment Data

Spring Semester 2018

In compliance with R.C. 3313.666 (B) (10), the District is required to report the number of bullying incidents to the Board. Bullying is unwanted, aggressive behavior among students that involves a power imbalance and is repeated over time. This data reflects bullying behavior that was repeated often enough to warrant disciplinary action.

As of the end of the second semester of the 2017-2018 school year, the number of bullying incidents by building were:
