

School Council

April 18, 2023

-Members Present: Kristin Hornsby, Daniel Jape, Brittany Palermo, Kim Fowler, Lacy Savage, Julie Peppers; Rachel Wilkerson came late

-Meeting called to order at 7:03

-No corrections to the agenda, Motion to approve, Kim Fowler, second Daniel Jape; agenda approved

-No corrections to the minutes, Motion to approve Brittany Palermo, second Kim Fowler; minutes approved

-Report of the Principal:

-Enrollment in 2019-20 - 287

2020-21 - 283

2021-22 - 301

2022-23 - 305 (*officially the smallest school in the county at the moment)

-STEM Night – Huge success!

-Read Across America – several county members came to read to the students

-Rep Tour – improv theatre came to FH, acted out plays written by the students

-Staff Appreciation Week – incredible week sponsored by our PTA, parents, and partners

-Spring pictures will be coming home soon

-Milestones (3rd is the wk of April 24th, 4th is wk of May 1st, 5th is the wk of May 8)

PTA is providing snacks for the students during testing week

-End of Year benchmark testing is currently in progress (iReady and easyCBM have been completed)

-Kindergarten registration is open (April 11th was Kindergarten testing)

-Science Olympiad was in March, a few individual winners, did not make it to state

-BINGO – Huge success!

-Academic Bowl – Saturday, April 22nd at Dean Rusk

-Nurse Sharon is transferring to Boston Elementary next year, new nurse (Annette Fountain) is coming from Little River ES

-Awards Day – homeroom teachers will provide information to parents as to the day/time of each grade level's day

-New School Council Members 2023-24:

-Kristin Hornsby – parent business partner

-Michelle Stevens - parent

-Angie Gilleland - staff representative

-No new business

-Meeting adjourned at 7:27